To the Edilot of the Reamarket Era.

Sin: I noticed in your last issue a letter signed Wm. McMester, complaining that held, and accusing the parties who pre vented him of being the " Reave's pitiable tools." Mr. Eiltor, I, as the builder of the Mechanics' Hull, did prevent the young man from posting McMaster's bills on the building. I did it without the direction of $934 02-the salaries of the officers of the Reeve, and deny being the fool of any puppet pulled upon at will by these man or set of men. My reasons for acting as I did were as follows : let. I believed I had full powet to allow

Mr Bishop's Reply.

To the Editor of Newworket Era. Sin,-I observed in your last issue a most wanton attack made upon me by Mr. Wm. McMaster, apparently on the principle that unless a man is a merchan -and particularly is this the case when he is nobody, and not entitled to any respect. I conceive, however, that no matter how poor a man may be, provided his honesty is unquestionable and his character above reproach, he will receive from any of the McMaster family.

I can only account for the language used by him on the principle that men whose early days have been passed in scenes not creditable to themselves, can hardly ever, when under strong excitable the streets in a most uncomfortable calfeelings, neglect to make full use of the advantages which their association have

WASHINGTON, Ucl. 28 The scarred and worn out reteran Scott account of his physical infirmities.

The recent act of Congress provided that there should be no reduction in his terest. pay, subsistence or allowances in the event of his withdrawal from his command. It is well known that General Scott has had an unsettled account with the War De partment since the Mexican war. Secretary Cameron bas recen'ly given s tareful examination of his claums against the Government, now 13 years old. Jeff Davis's malignity brought him in debt on account of his expenditures and receipts in Mexico, and so far as the Secretary 's report could do it, discredited the veteran as a hostocial agent of the Govern-

Mr. Cameron bas reported that General Scott was not daly entitled to the money be claimed of the Government, but that he saved to it millions of dollars, which by the sas of war he could have pocketed under the settled principles regulating the distribution of pride and coprebution money. The opportunity of personal advantage Winfield Scott generously derotes to a bome for infirm soldiers. One of these monuments, long after be is dead, will be the soldiers' home near Washington.

(Special to the Post.) WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.

An officer who has just arrived here from the encampment of the Sickles brig ade, at Port Tobacco, Md., reports that the rebel steamer George Page, gesterday approached the shore at that point, and fired at our troops. Her shells fell into our campi and compelled the men to withdraw to a safe distance from the river.

PADUCAH, Oct. 28. Three companies of the 9th Illinois went to Saratoga, 44 miles up the Cumberland river on Saturday, and attacked a company of rebel cavalry, 100 strong, completely routing them. East Gwillimbury, Oct. 8th, 1861. Mr. Lusk,-Dear Sir,- I have purchased one of Mr. Lunk's Mills, and find it does its work better then any mil! I over worked with. I can mix outs and wheat half and half, and again separate the oats from the wheat so as to be ht for seed. So fer as I have tried the mill, I find it will answer every purpose a farmer may with. JOHN FLETCHER. Whitehutch, Oct. 12, 1861.

Dear Sir,-I have purchase one of David Lusk's Combined Fanning Mells, and I find it to be the best that I have any knowledge of, because it will separate vats from spring wheat, and can make a better rample of wheat, mixed with any rut-bieh or filih, than any other mill that I have used or seen used, with less waste .fi can be revolated different ways to any mill that I have yet seen in use, which I consider an improvement.
